Taihape Community Development Trust - June 2019

admin@taihape.co.nz

06 388 1307

Well WINTER has finally arrived, the Indian Summer long gone.

Welcome to June, and to our newsletter where we capture what Taihape is doing, thinking, organising and enjoying.

One such event coming up is the Celebration of 125 years of Taihape from 13-15 September 2019. Officially gazetted as a township in 1894, the township sat on the main trunk railway line. Situated above the Hautapu River, Taihape was settled by a small number of Christchurch families.

You're invited to a weekend of uniquely Taihape events, such as historic Taihape movies, the signing of Denis Robertson's updated "... give me TAIHAPE on a Saturday night", an Outback Market complete with gumboot throwing (naturally), a vintage High Tea in the Town Hall, historic displays, country music evening... and that's just a part of our plans. A full list of our events is on page 12 together with contact information. Give us a call, drop us a line, be a volunteer, LET'S CELEBRATE!

'Top Notch Taihape Snippets' is BACK! With a nod to our schools' news, sports goings on and other interesting snippets. If there's anything you'd like to let your community know, please get in touch so we can include your news in this newsletter.

Matariki is the Māori name for a cluster of stars that is visible in our night sky at a specific time of the year.

On 25th June, Matariki will re-appear in the dawn sky, signalling the start of the Māori New Year and is celebrated with education, remembrance and the planting of new trees and crops signalling new beginnings.

A range of shifts available on weekdays and weekends.

Ask yourself, what will you do: if you have no power, no water, are unable to drive because of road damage. How you will cope if your house is deemed unliveable? Get a couple of LED Torches and spare batteries, get a battery radio and spare batteries. Put together some supplies, buy tinned or easy to prepare food when shopping. Get the BBQ & generator sorted and ready with a full cylinder. Store at least 10 litres of water per person, per day. Have a means of toileting in an emergency: extra baby supplies, a bucket with a supply of plastic rubbish sacks, toilet paper, soap, hand sanitiser.

Remember: you are on your own for at least the first 3 days, it may be longer.

Finally, get to know your neighbours, join Neighbourhood Support & don't forget the elderly or vulnerable people in your street.

Trust News— In May we said goodbye to Eva George, our Project and Events Coordinator and in June we welcomed Kathy Clark and Michelle Marks as Project and Events Coordinators job-sharing the role.

Kathy's event background includes iconic events such as RWC 2011, 2012 Volvo Ocean Race Stopover, as well as four decades of volunteer work in community bands. Outside the Trust, she works as an itinerant music tutor. In her spare time, she conducts the Waimarino Junior Brass Band.

Michelle's strategic business acumen drives return on investment using innovative software. With more than 25 years in the hospitality industry, Michelle has a wealth of knowledge and experience at her fingertips. When not in the office, you will find Michelle busy in the community with her dog-grooming business, The Orange Bone.

Hope you enjoy the newsletter, take care for now!

WHAT DO THESE ORGANISATIONS DO?

The Taihape Community

Development Trust's vision is to have a sustainable community, enriched with growth, with a population that feels empowered and is committed to improve Taihape & District for future generations.

- To increase community involvement – increased engagement with elderly and youth;
- To empower youth – involve the next generation in activities and grow responsibility for the future; and
- To strengthen the business community – becoming a vibrant town, attracting new businesses, visitors and clientele from both inside and outside of Taihape.

The TCDT has developed a work-plan to achieve this vision. This vision aligns with our local district council's priority, namely 'Activities, programmes, or services, which will result in increased connections within the community and builds sustainable and capacity for local grass root organisations providing services to our communities.'

The Taihape & Ratana

Community Boards were established in November 1989 as one of two Rangitikei District Community Boards; one for the Taihape Ward and one for the Ratana community;

- Community Initiatives Fund - consideration of applications from the Taihape & Ratana Wards. The allocated funding for the Board is $7,200;
- Represent and act as an advocate for the interests of their community;
- Consider and report on any matter referred to it by the Council and any issues of interest or concern to the Community Board;
- Make an annual submission to Council on expenditure in their community;
- Maintain an overview of Council services within their community; and

UPCOMING CONCERT

Four prominent New Zealand musicians will combine for a recital at the Taihape Women's Club on Sunday 16 June. The artists are Ingrid Culliford, flute, with Kris Zuelicke on the piano, and John Seagar, violin, with our local pianist, Helen Gordon. Their very interesting programme will include Sonatas for flute, violin, and piano, as well as a variety of solos.

Now living in Wanganui, Ingrid Culliford lived for many years in London, where she had an extensive career as a soloist and orchestral musician. She recorded frequently for BBC3 and toured throughout the UK, Europe, Canada, and the Americas. Her co-artist, Kris Zuelicke is American born, and holds music degrees from Miami and Indiana Universities and a Doctorate of Music with the NZ School of Music. Kris now lives in Wellington. Ingrid and Kris will play Sonatas by Veracini and Poulenc and other solos.

Helen Gordon and John Seagar will combine to play two Mozart Sonatas for violin and piano. John is an Auckland violinist, a member of the Kotuka Quintet and a very busy itinerant teacher. Taihape born pianist Helen Gordon (Collier) is well known to us. She is a graduate of the NSW (Sydney) Conservatorium, and the Vienna Conservatorium of Music. Her musical career has taken her worldwide as a solo pianist in recitals, radio broadcasts and appearances with national orchestras. This is a wonderful opportunity to hear such accomplished musicians here in Taihape.

Your Master Gland – THE THYROID GLAND

At the front of your neck is your thyroid, shield-like shaped gland that secretes two hormones, T4 (thyroxine) and T3 (triiodothyronine). These hormones influence the metabolic processes throughout your entire body; instructing your heart to beat, your lungs to breathe, your digestion to absorb food and your cells to convert that food into energy. For something so small, your thyroid plays a large role in your overall vitality! However, due to numerous factors, your thyroid can easily be thrown out of balance, leading to many aspects of your health also being affected.

Knowledge is power, so let's find out more!

When the Master Goes Amiss

There are several different conditions that can arise when the thyroid becomes dysfunctional:

Hypothyroidism: This is the most common thyroid condition and refers to an underactive or sluggish thyroid. As this slows down your metabolism, hypothyroidism results in symptoms such as fatigue, hair loss, weight gain, depression, intolerance to the cold, dry skin and constipation.

Hyperthyroidism: On the flipside, the thyroid can also become overactive, speeding up the metabolism. This displays symptoms like a rapid heart rate, excessive sweating, weight loss, fatigue and agitation.

Autoimmune Thyroid Disease: Autoimmunity refers to the body's immune system attacking itself. In the thyroid, this manifests as either Hashimoto's (creating an underactive thyroid), or Graves' disease (creating an overactive thyroid).

Goitre: A goitre is the enlargement or swelling of the thyroid gland. It can occur with both an under and overactive thyroid, as well as an iodine deficiency.

Driving the Thyroid to Dysfunction

There are many factors that contribute to an unbalanced thyroid gland, however two of the biggest drivers are stress and an iodine deficiency.

Stress: Physical or emotional stress can reduce the level of hormones your thyroid makes, and can also flare an existing autoimmune thyroid condition.

Iodine deficiency: Iodine is a component of thyroid hormone, making it vital for healthy thyroid function. Unfortunately, the average Australian diet is extremely low iodine-rich foods, which can lead to an underactive thyroid or goitre formation.

Nourish Your Thyroid Naturally

There are key nutrients and herbs that can address the drivers of thyroid issues, helping your thyroid to function optimally.

Iodine: If you are deficient, supplementation of this mineral will help to support the production of thyroid hormones and reduce your risk of hypothyroidism and goitre growth.

Magnesium: This mineral helps to reduce the activation of the stress system, saving the thyroid from strain. Magnesium also assists cells utilise iodine.

Withania: When the thyroid is underactive, this herb can work to boost the synthesis of thyroid hormones, whilst also helping the body to cope when stressed.

Thyroid Loving Tips

Three potent things you can do to support the optimal function of your thyroid gland are:

Iodine consumption: iodine rich foods include oysters, fish, seaweed, dairy and beans. If not currently consuming these foods regularly, make a plan to increase your iodine intake!

Sleep hygiene: Quality sleep is essential for good thyroid function; ensure you are getting 7-9 hours per night. Additionally, turning off all electronic screens and bright lights at least 1 hour before retiring will assist in good quality sleep.

Stress management: Take some time out each day to reduce your stress levels. This might be going for a walk, chatting with a friend, attending a yoga class or completing a guided meditation.

Show your shield some love

If you are experiencing any symptoms that can be associated with thyroid issues, speak to your natural medicine Practitioner. They will be able to provide you with further guidance on assessing and managing your presentation.

"Self-care isn't selfish, both you and your thyroid deserve it!"

NEED POLICE ATTENDANCE?

You can now call 105 or go online to 105.police.govt.nz to contact POLICE for non-emergencies.

Just remember, in an emergency, always call 111.

105 is a national non-emergency number that will be answered 24/7 by highly trained Police staff. It is free to call from all landline & mobile phones.

Until now people either called their local Police Station or they called 111 if they wanted to get hold of Police.

As well as by phone, people can go online to the 105 website to report certain non-emergency situations and get updates on or add more information to their existing reports. Currently, lost property, intentional property damage, shoplifting, general theft, and theft from a car can be reported at 105.police.govt.nz

Call 105 or use 105.police.govt.nz to report:

- Theft in a public place
- Theft from a car
- Intentional property damage
- Shoplifting
- Lost property
- Or to get an update on a report already made or add to an existing report

Call 111 when:

- A crime is happening now – and the offenders are still there or just left
- Someone's in danger or badly injured
- There's a serious risk to human life or property
- You see a major public hazard, like trees blocking a road
- Any of these things are happening now or have just happened.

Taihape's I-Site (In town hall) has a police leaflet available if you want more information
